Emergency Procedures

Keilan Littleton, Security Manager
Security Phone: (314) 802-3455

Severe Weather (Tornados, Storms, Etcetera.):

1. Listen to alarms and announcements over our public address (PA) system for information on what kind of severe weather is approaching.
2. Please follow the instructions of the Hotel Lead who will escort you to the proper location.
3. If in the vicinity of the Grand Ballroom or the Regency Ballroom you will be redirected to the BACK HALLS of the hotel for safety.
4. If you are located in the Grand Hall or the Historic Head House you can take shelter behind the FRONT DESK, BATHROOMS, or INTERIOR AREAS away from windows.

Please remember there will always be a Hotel Personnel to give instructions.

Fire/Evacuation Situations:

1. Listen to PA system for information.
2. Follow instructions from the Hotel Lead who will escort you to the proper location.
3. If in the Ballroom Area, proceed to the BACK DOCK exit, or the Ballroom exits in FOYER A, B, or C.
4. Once outside the building, proceed to the PARKING LOTS to the west and south, across from St. Louis Union Station Hotel.
5. If you are in the Head House meeting rooms (train name rooms) proceed to the stairs at the west end of the hall and proceed down the stair well to exit the building. There is a second set of evacuation stairs near the middle of the floor next to Zephyr Rocket and a last set of stairs on the east end of the meeting space to exit you down to the Terminal Atrium (glass block floor). You will then proceed to the PARK across the street from the St. Louis Union Station Hotel.

Emergencies (Medical or Other):

1. Locate the nearest HOUSE PHONE.
   a. If in the Ballroom area, there is a house phone located in Foyer B (around the corner from Grand C).
2. Press or dial 55 this will connect you to our Security Department please notify them of what is happening.
3. If you feel you do not have time to find a phone please find a hotel associate who can locate the correct personnel for you.
4. Assist in taking action from the orders given by the Hotel Lead.
